Текст объявления:Sales of an apartment with several bedrooms in the living complex Bondis in the ski-resort Bansko

A gorgeous large apartment with three bedrooms is offered for sale in the living complex Bondis in the town of Bansko.

The living complex is constructed in a typical Bansko architectural style. The combination of dark wood with a light stone in the exterior design creates an impression of coziness and warmth.

PVC windows protect from cold weather. The good and high-quality construction allows buying property for permanent living, summer and winter vacations, rental.

The complex territory is surrounded with an azure metal fence and hides a beautiful green park. In the living building, there is an elevator and a ski wardrobe.

The complex has a convenient location close to the ski lift and 300 m away from the downtown.

The large supermarket is 500 m away, the bus station is at a distance of 1 km only.

In Bondis, we are happy to offer an apartment with views of the mountains. It is located on the 4th floor, furnished and equipped with all the necessary housing appliances. All the furniture is modern and has high quality.

The pearl of the apartment is a living room with an area for kitchen and dining. In the center of this large and light room there is a fireplace made per a special design. You can spend a good time here during long winter evenings.

Three bedrooms with mansard floors and three balconies create an incredible comfort and coziness of a village cottage. For the comfort of the residents, there are three bathrooms in this large apartment. An apartment is equipped with high-quality furniture and appliances. Mountain view.

The apartment price includes a parking lot.

Low maintenance fee.
